

Abuja Electricity Distribution Plc (AEDC)

Overview

The Abuja Electricity Distribution Company (AEDC) is a major electricity distribution entity in Nigeria. It was established following the unbundling of the Power Holding Company of Nigeria (PHCN) and privatized on November 1, 2013.

Operational Scope

AEDC is responsible for distributing and selling electricity across a franchise area covering approximately 133,000 square kilometers, which includes:

- Federal Capital Territory (FCT)
- Niger State
- Kogi State
- Nasarawa State

Mission and Vision

Mission: To make customers happy and deliver power to all homes and businesses within their network.

Vision: To be a world-class utility, providing power 24/7.

Core Services

The company manages meter installations, power distribution network maintenance, billing, consumer credit management, and revenue collection. They are committed to improving power supply reliability and technical efficiency through infrastructure investment and digital transformation.

Report generated for informational purposes.